

Street Lab

A paid opportunity for NYC public high school students to support and shape how Street Lab engages with communities across New York City.

Teens will explore the power of creativity to uplift communities by helping to develop and lead our Street Marker program. Street Marker provides access to chalk and custom chalk tools for visitors to draw and create expansive chalk murals together in the street.

Apply now through 5/6!
streetlab.org/street-lab-teens

